Why not arrive a few days before your cruise to enjoy the shopping, restaurants, fine hotel accommodations, and views of Baltimore's world famous Inner Harbor. Visit the renowned National Aquarium and the Maryland Science Center.

Indulge your appetite at nearby exquisite restaurants in Little Italy, Locust Point, Fells Point, and Canton. Take a step back in time and visit Fort McHenry, the Birthplace of our national anthem.

Baltimore is also the home to some of the finest museums in the world, including the Walters Art Gallery, the Baltimore Museum of Art, Baltimore Museum of Industry and the Reginald Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History and Culture.

A short drive south leads you to Annapolis, the sailing capital of the world. Stroll along historic streets, sample the seafood Maryland is famous for, or visit the U.S. Naval Academy. Washington DC is also an easy drive down I-95 from Baltimore. Visit the museums and monuments that make the city one of the top tourist destinations in the world.
